Obituary

Annie Bell Anderson Murray was born in Thomasville, GA, on November 4, 1911. She married Tommie Lee Murray in Fernandina, FL, in 1929. To this union six children were born: Dorothy Lee (McCarthy), Eddie Lee, Sadie Mae (Smith), Carl Louis, Mary Catherine (Hepburn) and Sylvester. Tommie died in 1985 and Dorothy died in 1959. The Murrays lived in Miami since 1936.

Annie Bell was a life member of Triumph The Church and Kingdom of God in Christ. She was a devout Christian and enjoyed and supported Christian television. After her retirement as a domestic, she was active with the Jollivet Senior Citizens Center and was a Dade County precinct elections worker. She was named Woman of the Year in 1979 by the Miami Chapter of the National Council of Negro Women, an organization she served as Vice President and Chairperson of the committee that sought space in the Caleb Center for the NCNW's Black History Project.

Annie Bell died in Jersey City, NJ, on October 3, 1993, where she was residing with daughter Mary. She is survived by a sister, Janie Murray; the five living children, sons-in-law Alphis McCarthy Sr, Wesley Smith and George Hepburn; daughters-in-law Mildred Murray and Carolyn Murray; grandchildren Debra and Stephanie McCarthy, Sharon Dupree, Linda Tutson, Gregory, Autray and Robin Murray, Cheryl Smith, Stacy Hepburn, Kimberly and Joshua Murray; sisters-in-law, Viola Ellis and Annie Mae Poole; and several nieces, nephews and great grandchildren.

We Love You So Much Mama And Grandmother,
And We Thank You For Loving Us.
