My Ship Has Come

*Sometimes feels like everything is passing me by.
Every now and then it feels like a ship has gone and sailed away, but I have to be strong and hold on.
It won't be too long now the tide is coming in.
I see the waves flowing out there on the ocean I know my ship is coming in. Just past the horizon and right where the sky ends.
Out there on the ocean I know my ship is coming in.
I've been waiting too long but at this moment my ship has finally come.*

Love is the Greatest

If I could speak to all the languages of earth and of angels, but didn't love others, I would only be a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. If I had the gift of prophecy, and if I understood all of God's secret plans and possessed all knowledge, and if I had such faith that I could move mountains, but didn't love others, I would be nothing. If I gave everything I have to the poor and even sacrificed my body, I could boast about it, but if I didn't love others, I would have gained nothing. Love is patient and kind. Love is not jealous or boastful or proud or rude. It does not demand its own way. It is not irritable, and it keeps no record of being wronged. It does not rejoice about injustice but rejoices whenever the truth wins out. Love never gives up, never loses faith, is always hopeful, and endures through every circumstance.
